Located in the north of Costa Rica, the impressive Arenal Volcano is a natural phenomenon that attracts thousands and thousands of tourists due to its permanent and extraordinary volcanic activity, which on clear nights resembles fireworks with intermittent explosions of ash and lava.

On the way to the imposing Arenal Volcano there will be a stop in the famous town of Sarchi, known as the Birthplace of Costa Rica's Artisans, the journey will continue passing by diverse plantations with agricultural products, ornamental plants and cattle ranches until arriving to La Fortuna Town, for lunch at a cozy restaurant right in front of the volcano. This excellent location will allow you the best view to see any volcanic activity. Later on, you will relax at one of the best hot springs in the area where it is also possible to enjoy an optional massage or other special treatment that must be reserved ahead of time. Before going back to San José, a wonderful dinner will be served with a great view of the volcano so that you do not miss any opportunity to look out for the incandescent light explosions.
